Postmaster Announces Service Curtailment

Antioch Lions Club President, Ward Lear, seated right, checks with chairmen of the various committees on progress of Farmer's Picnic Chicken Bar-B-Q to be held Sun., Aug. 4 at the Antioch Aqua Center from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Seated left to right are Earl Stringer, Maynard Schneider, Jack Fields and Ward Lear. Standing from left to right: D. Endries, Preston Reckers, and Irv Buchta.

A Congressional mandate to cut back Federal employment to the June 30, 1966 level—including 83,328 postal employees nationally and many in this area—mail service limitations will start locally Saturday, July 27.

The announcement of the cut back in the service was made by acting Antioch Postmaster Robert Carter.

Carter said that he was advised by Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson to comply with the cut required by Congress under the recently enacted tax bill by reducing some postal services and curtailing new hiring. Curtailments which will take effect locally include:

1. Effective July 27 all regular Saturday and Sunday window service will be discontinued.
2. Effective July 27 Saturday collection of mail from street deposit boxes will be adjusted to conform to the generally less frequent Sunday collection schedule.

After also noted that beginning July 1, all planned extensions of city and rural delivery were curtailed. At this time there are no plans to provide mail delivery service to new housing subdivisions and apartment projects.

General delivery windows will be open for two hours on Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. to deliver mail to General Delivery patrons and to firms that normally call for their mail at the post office.

Residential customers who have received a notice that parcels are being held for them at the post office also may call for them at that time.

"This is not a matter of dollars, but of people," Postmaster General Watson said. "Under the manpower restrictions imposed by the tax bill, we simply will not have enough people to continue all postal services at their present level."

"Hopefully, Congress will correct this situation."

Carter emphasized that the post office department agreed to the reduction in funds for the 1969 fiscal year that began July 1, and is not asking for a restoration of any money cut from its budget.

"The Postmaster General told us we would operate within our budget and maintain postal services at or near its present level," Carter said, "if we did not have to reduce employment to the June 1966 level."

Carter also noted that he has been directed to submit his plans (Continued on page two)

Shriners Second Annual Game Set

Fun and games are a large part of the Shriners picture, but the fez-wearing Shriners have their serious side which is shown particularly in their work with young people.

The work of the Shriners in supporting national crippled children's hospitals and burn institutes is well-known, but the local Shrine clubs and local Shrine temples have their own localized programs which are less well-known.

The support of these other programs for nursing scholarships, youth work, and hospital support is the purpose behind the Second Annual Lake County Shrine Charities Benefit Football game, according to Will Wagner, president of the Chain O' Lakes Shrine Club of Medinah Temple, one of the sponsoring Shrine organizations.

Other sponsors are the Lake County Shrine Club and the Tebala Motor Patrol of Tebala Temple, Rockford.

The game will launch the Lake County football season on Saturday, Aug. 10 with kickoff time slated for 8 p.m.

Host team for the benefit (it will be the Lake County Rifles, who will be seeking their third straight Central States Professional Football League title in 1968, and the West Allis Spartans, of the league, will provide the opposition.

"Benefit football games and the Shriners have been a team for a good many years," according to William Dowden, director of the Tebala Motor Patrol, "and we are confident the people of Lake County will support us in this venture."

No Shrine event is complete without a parade and a colorful pageant has been planned as a certain raiser for the football game, according to Judge Harry Strouse, President of the Lake County Shrine Club.

Maxwell Days Aug. 1-3

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce has announced that the 10th annual Maxwell Street Days will be held in Antioch on Aug. 1, 2 and 3.

This is the annual sales which bring throngs into the Antioch shopping district to take advantage of the yearly clearance sales being offered by local merchants.

The unique feature of the Maxwell Street Days is the displaying of merchandise on the sidewalks in the business district offering shoppers the opportunity to make their way along the streets to select their choice of the exceptional bargains.

Maxwell Street Days have become popular during the past years because of the tremendous values offered by the local merchants who use this event to free their shelves of spring and summer merchandise at exceptionally low prices.

Air Pollution Is Health Hazard

(Fifth in a Series)

Sun's coming out. Looks like, a nice day.

These first attempts by a child to fit words together reveal that a child sees what an adult sometimes misses; a day that is bright, sun-filled, and abundant with fresh, clear air is indeed a nice day. It's the kind of day that affects health and well-being positively; it is a joy to an employer who knows that his employees' output will soar.

But there are fewer and fewer nice days, particularly in urban areas where air is becoming polluted to the point where there is imminent danger, increased illness and even death to human beings.

That air pollutants do claim human life has been made all too clear to the folk of Donora, Pa., who grieved when 20 of their kin and friends died, and in London in 1952 when the normal mortality rate was exceeded by 4,000 additional deaths in a single week.

Here in Illinois, the carbon monoxide levels in our cities have come alarmingly close to lethal level. So far luck has been with Illinois and a public catastrophe has been averted.

Each Illinois resident has a right to be proud of the state's economic achievements which are acclaimed around the world.

But polluted air is one of the by-products of industrialization, urbanization, and human mobility, all of which, hopefully, will (Continued on page three)

The Kids Benefit

Well-legs run so that children can walk.
That may not be exactly the phrase
was said, but it is close.

The well legs are those of the Lake County
Rifles who will participate Aug. 10 in the Second Annual Lake County Shrine Football Game.

It really doesn't matter who the participants are.

What really matters is that someone cares enough to do a little extra so that a crippled child can benefit.

The event is put on by the Shriners—the fun portion of the Masonic order—but this is not for fun.

This is so that 19 children's hospitals and three burn centers which treat seriously burned youngsters can keep on operating.

Everyone cringes when someone says this is for charity.

But this is one function where you know what happens to the proceeds because you can see these children, once crippled up, walking.

There are many kids in Lake County that are getting around today because of the work done by the Shriners.

And, besides. We like football too.

Its Fair Time

It's County Fair time again.

And this year's activity promises to be bigger and better than ever.

A lot of folks have probably never been to a county fair, even though this one is an easy drive from anywhere in Lake County.

It seems that we have become too sophisticated to participate in the small pleasures in life.

If your children have never seen farm animals — and you would be surprised how many this would include—take them to the county fair.

There they will get their fill of horses, cattle,
sheep and rabbits, to name just a few.

It is still a pleasure to see a youngster who has carefully raised a farm animal, petted and cared for it, combed and curried it, carry off a blue ribbon for his or her efforts.

In these days of fast moving cars and less time to do things than one would want, it seems to us a good thing would be to slow down a bit.

Take a walk—leisurely, of course—around the old fairgrounds and eat a little cotton candy.

You would be surprised how enjoyable such a day could be.

So come to the fair.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

The Federal government has demonstrated a striking lack of capacity for administering programs designed to meet numerous domestic problems. Sometime last year the Office of Economic Opportunity compiled a catalog listing more than 1,000 separate Federal Programs. This vast compilation has been made available to local public officials and citizens to aid them in applying for benefits in the form of Federal grants and loans.

Recently, Congressman William
V. Roth of Delaware disclosed the results of an 8 months' study conducted privately by himself and his office staff which appears to be more accurate and authentic than the previous OEO study.
Indeed, Congressman Roth indicates numerous discrepancies between the two studies, and discusses the reasons for the discrepancies as he has discovered it.
For instance, the OEO catalog lists 62 programs in the Office of Education. A subsequent government bureau lists 82 programs.

Still another official listing brings the total to 111. Congressman Roth determined that there are indeed over 120 programs offering assistance to schools, students, teachers and others available through the Office of Education. Numerous other examples are given in the report which Congressman Roth presented recently to the U. S. House of Representatives.

Since the Federal government itself seems not to be accurately informed of its own proliferated bureaucracy it is easy to understand how the private citizen is frequently confused and dismayed.

In order that the Executive Branch may be required to maintain a list of activities in which it is engaged, Congressman Roth has advanced a proposal (H. R.
18574) that the President communicate to the Congress at the beginning of each year a full and complete list of all Federal programs and by whom they are administered. This member of Congress, as well as more than 50
other members of the House and Senate have joined in sponsoring this Joint Resolution.

The great maze of Federal activities suggests also that there is widespread extravagance and duplications which should be eliminated. However, in order to accomplish such a result, it would seem important to reestablish a commission similar to that headed by the late former President Herbert Hoover, whose studies completed in 1955 discovered numerous areas of waste and inefficiency. The recommendations of the Hoover Commission resulted in savings of millions of dollars to the U. S. taxpayers at a time when the Federal budget was far smaller than it is today. The reestablishment of an investigative body similar to the Hoover Commission has strong bipartisan support. In addition to the sponsorship of Republican Congressman Roth, this measure is backed by such influential Democratic members as Congressman Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, and Congressman Henry S. Reuss of Wisconsin; and Republican Congresswomen Florence P. Dwyer, of New Jersey, and Margaret M. Heckler, of Massachusetts.

While the Roth Commission for the Improvement of Government Management and Organization
may not be acted upon before the Congress adjourns this year it seems probable that this proposal will receive favorable consideration when the Congress reconvenes in January.

Congressman William V. Roth
of Delaware merits the praise of his colleagues in the Congress as well as of the citizens of the Nation. The valuable service he has rendered to other members of Congress as well as to the Nation as a whole in unquestionable.

Rick Luszcak Thanks Antioch

Harry Brehen, of Project Vietnam, received the following letter from Rick Luszcak in Vietnam.

Dear Mr. Brehen:—

I received your letter and notice of all the men in Vietnam, and I use the word "men" freely, because not a single one is a child in my thoughts.

Although this is my first reply to a letter sent from Antioch, I have received many packages and letters in the past. I believe the biggest highlight of them all was on Christmas Day.

We were anchored in DaNang harbor, after completing operation Badger Tooth, which caused us 22 days without mail call. On this day, we had one of the biggest mail calls I've seen on the ship.

Among all the wonderful Xmas cards and letters from my friends, I received a special Christmas greeting from the warm hearted people of Antioch. This included packages of assorted candies, cookies, playing cards, etc., which not only made me happy and lucky to be from an outstanding town, but left a feeling of thankfulness and much gratitude. The thing that made me feel proud was the fact that all of my buddies received packages from their folks and friends, but not one received anything from their home town. They could hardly believe that the people of any town could be so thoughtful toward the men serving overseas.

When packages and letters kept coming in, I was the talk of the ship and the guys started to really envy me.

I also have to mention the huge card I received on Christmas day with all the signatures that covered it. I have to admit I don't know all the great students on the card, but just knowing of the time they set aside to put this card out to us, makes myself and I'm sure, the rest of the guys, feel awful good.

My only regret is that I haven't sent my thanks sooner for all the fine letters and packages I have received since I came overseas. There is one request I would like to make, and will think of it as a great favor—if you would inform the rest of the very fine citizens of Antioch that are helping in Project Vietnam, that I send them all my thanks and best wishes for the wonderful job you are doing.

At the present time our ship is heading for Wunder Beach to unload jeeps and take on ammunition along with army personnel. From there, we are going on a river patrol on the river delta.

One more thing, which isn't much news, but only a change in my address. Last November I made E4 and my rate is SK/3. Once again, Mr. Brehen, I'd like to send my deepest thanks to you and all the magnificent people of Antioch.

Very sincerely,
Rick Luszcak

continue to increase rapidly but under guidelines that will eliminate air pollution.

All of us are responsible for the pollutants filling the air for they come from the fuels we burn in homes and factories and in transporting ourselves and our goods, from the production and processing of materials in mines and factories, from our consumption of products, and from disposal of unwanted waste materials.

treatment of alcoholics. The 12 downstate and five Chicago agencies will match the grants $178,561 in local funds.

Three scholarships totaling $10,700 also were awarded to special schools for alcoholism studies.

The programs are administered through the Department of Mental Health.

These pollutants often are the cause of many annoying irritants such as smarting eyes, dryness of the upper respiratory passages, and nose and throat discomfort. When exposure to air pollutants is moderate, discomfort usually ends within 12 to 24 hours.

But studies have revealed that individuals exposed to high concentrations have periodic pains which continued for two days, coughing which persisted for two weeks, and a loss of coordinating ability, fatigue, and difficulty in expression and articulation.

Unless measures are taken to preserve one of our most important natural resources—the air we breathe—a new label might come into popularity, "The Cough Generation." The label isn't flattering; the coughing isn't fun.

And it appears that there's a relationship between air pollution and the group of chronic obstructive ventilatory diseases which are increasing in incidence as industrialization increases.

Some research has revealed that asthmatic attacks occur more frequently on days with smog damage to plants, that emphysema patients improve on breathing filtered air after several days' exposure to smog, and that the daily course of patients with chronic obstructive respiratory disease fluctuate with certain pollutant levels.

It's also believed that air pollution and its accompanying discomfort may create a physiological effect which decreases an individual's motivation.

One observer of the air and water pollution problem reflects:

"The problem of environmental deterioration may turn out to be the greatest challenge man has faced on earth."

Aileen Biehl-PM&L's Pet English Import

By Shirley Jensen (Photo by Vern)

In 1955, slender and willowy Aileen Fosh of Northeast London, England, was vacationing in the South of France when she met a tall young American by the name of Paul (Nick) Biel, in a local bistro. Some time passed before Aileen and Nick saw each other her interest in the theatre. Before becoming a great asset to PM&L (and Nick Biel), she spent 5 years in the chorus (back row) of the London Stock Exchange Opera and Drama Society. Aileen also spent 6 years with the Waustead Players in Essex, England, working on sound, lighting, props, prompting and stage managing.

Aileen Biel's first contribution to PM&L was as a prompter for the children's production "Filbertygitbet" in 1965. She was also a prompter for "Antigone" in 1967. From then on she became the ideal stage manager for PM&L's productions of "On Borrowed Time," "South Pacific," "Once Upon a Mattress," "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," "Oliver," "Take Me Along" and "Never Too Late."

In between plays, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Biel have managed to produce four star attractions of their own: namely, Mark, 6, Jennifer, 4, Andrew, 3, and Stephen, 4½ months.

Currently, Aileen is director Ken Smouse's "Girl Friday", working as stage manager for the forthcoming PM&L musical "Kiss Me Kate," to be seen at the PM&L Theatre July 26, 27 and 28, and August 2, 3, and 4.

When it comes to backstage theatrics, Aileen is a woman who knows what she is doing and does it well. Her quiet, good natured and efficient manner seemingly acts as a tranquilizer for the director and actors in any play with which she is connected. She received a Director's Award at the 1967 Annual PM&L Awards Banquet.

The valuable people behind the scenes of any theatrical production seldom get to take the bows, but the show could not go on without them. Aileen Biel is a prime example of one of these unsung heroines, and PM&L is lucky to have her!

RETIREMENT

When we are decently old we may retire to a place in the country. Yet we do not think of ourselves as done for and discarded. We have not really retired at all, but freed ourselves to greener pastures—pastures of leisure, perhaps, but more often of opportunities and adventures, sometimes very active indeed.

No one can retire us but ourselves.

'Kiss Me Kate' Is The Next PM&L Showing

Take a tempestuous shrew, Kate by name. Add a swaggering shrew-taming hero. Mix in a flirtatious bouncy Bianca and her many swains and a worried father who has both of these females to contend with. Then add two gangsters who are completely lost on stage but have a definite mission to accomplish. All of these ingredients add up to the rollicking and melody-filled musical comedy "Kiss Me Kate."

The Antioch run of "Kiss Me Kate," directed by Ken Smouse, will open this weekend on July 26, 27 and 28, at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main Street. It will also be presented August 2, 3, and 4. Curtain time is 8:30, and ticket reservations may be made by calling 395-1217 or 395-0539.

PM&L promises an evening of laughter and enjoyment to area theatre goers. The entire play is by Bella and Samuel Peck, music by Cole Porter, and the play-within-a-play is contributed by none other than William Shakespeare.

Barbara Fleischer from Silver Lake stars as Kate. Wes Camp of Antioch plays Petruchio. Marybeth Vaughan of Lake Villa plays Bianca, and Bob Thomley of Lindenhurst is Lucentio. Al Ramsay of Duck Lake and Frank Nolan of Waukegan plays the gangsters.

Supporting roles go to Gloria Davis, Gary Richter, Charles Hollocher, and Homer LaPlant. Members of the chorus are Carol Brandy, Carol Fischer, Kathy Droogan, Gigi Palaske, Charmaine Daniel, Marty Lusiak, Paul Yuskas, Sue Stringer, Barb Bushnell, Dee D'Isa, Melanee Pedersen, Jim McDowell, Bryon Sorensen, Jerry Smouse, Don Larson and Richard Nolan.

The pit combo consists of Cheryl Hughes playing organ and piano, and Joe Kanka on drums. Choreography is directed by Melanee Pedersen of Fox Lake. Aileen Biel is stage manager. Michael Ciesielka is responsible for set design and construction. Wayne Bentel does the lighting and Diane Busch is costume designer.

People Pay For Roads

The Director of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads has refuted the charge that highways are subsidized by government, the publication Oil Facts reports.

Francis C. Turner pointed out that roads are paid for in special taxes by the people who use them. Furthermore, he said, highway users pay a 25 per cent average surcharge which is diverted to general government purposes.

Emphasizing the growing importance of highways to the nation, Turner noted that about 95 per cent of all travel in the largest cities can be handled only by private automobile or taxi. He said that those who propose mass transit as the "easy and instant solution" to transportation problems either "don't know or deliberately ignore" this situation.

Turner also took issue with those who charge there is too much highway construction. He said that most of the investment in roads during the last half century has been improvements in the basic system created in the horse and buggy days.

Are New Tax Bills Legal?

Two new bills requiring every motorist to show proof that personal property taxes had been paid or are not owed before license plates may be obtained that are coming up for consideration at the emergency session of the Illinois General Assembly may be unconstitutional, the Chicago Motor Club-AAA has warned members of the legislature.

The motor club's legislative bulletin also points out that even if the bills withstand the test of constitutionality they still would place a tremendous burden upon all vehicle owners in the state, tax officials and the automobile department of the Illinois Secretary of State.

These bills (S.B. 2039 and H.B. 2726) are widely misunderstood, they are commonly believed, to have a purpose only to tax automobiles. Actually, they call for obtaining a certificate relating to taxes upon all of one's personal property from city and county officials.

There are more than five million motor vehicles registered in the State of Illinois. The owner of each would have to visit his local tax collector and ask for certificate of proof. The tax collectors would have to search their records and issue the five million certificates. The Secretary of State would have to review the certificates for their authenticity.

The bulletin adds that the whole program would impose great administrative expense upon the state which would get no compensating revenues to meet such costs. The motor club also cautioned it could be worse for the individual who would have to take as much as a day off from work to procure the required certificates, even though he owed no tax.

Illinois-Transportation center served by more than 26 air lines (17 with direct overseas connections), 63 railroads (second largest with 11,000 miles of track) and 1,500 trucking companies.

Farm Safety Month Is Designated

The week of July 21 to 27 has been proclaimed as "National Farm Safety Week." The proclamation calls attention to the importance of farm safety for one week and is intended to emphasize its importance throughout the year. This year's farm safety theme is "Think and Act Safely."

Accidents of all types kill more than 8,000 farm residents each year and another 740,000 members of farm families are injured. Nearly half of the farm resident accidental deaths are the result of traffic accidents. We can reduce these farm resident deaths by thinking and acting safely everywhere at all times, reminds the Lake County Safety Commission.

Traffic signs are signs of life. On rural highways, obedience to signs is doubly important as speeds are higher and drivers are generally less alert. For especially alert for railroad crossings and unmarked intersections.

Remember, courtesy prevents accidents, says the Lake County Safety Commission. When traffic begins to "pile up" behind a slow-moving vehicle on the highway, the operator should pull off onto the shoulder and let the faster moving traffic go by.

Operators of slow-moving vehicles should avoid using public highways at night. If night operation is necessary, make sure your vehicle is properly lighted. On rural roads be sure to signal well ahead before turning into that farm entrance. Never turn in front of a fast moving car—wait until he has gone by.

The Antioch Grade School board at their regular meeting last week set their fiscal year from July 1, 1968 to June 30, 1969 and adopted a tentative budget for 1968 and 1969.

The committee that worked on this budget included Miss Mildred LaPlant, chairman; Wayne Polsgrove and Fred Wachtel, assisted by Richard Whitacre and Norman Jedele.

The board authorized that the tentative budget be made available to the public. It will be on file and available for public inspection at the Antioch Grade School office beginning July 30, 1968. A public hearing on this budget will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 17.

A statement from Norman Jedele was read to the board, stating that tax money is coming in and there is adequate cash on hand.

No architect has been selected as yet for the proposed new building, and the board is interviewing architects and visiting buildings at the present time.

A letter was received from Donald Anderson of Anderson, Rehder and Vandore, architects, stating that their chief draftsman, Levert Vandenberg, had been granted an architect's license and had joined their firm along with Robert Wisner, formerly with the architectural firm of Perkins and Will in Chicago.

The office was given permission to purchase a new air conditioner for the inner school office.

Edison Steps Up On Power

Commonwealth Edison Company's power supply system received a new boost in energy last week when 21 fast-startup peaking units were placed in service at three of the company's generating stations.

Chairman J. Harris Ward said the units' 550,000 kilowatts raised the net capability of the Edison generating system to more than 9,650,000 kilowatts.

Designed primarily for operation during periods of unusually heavy demands for electricity, the quick starting turbines also provide reserve power for emergencies, according to Mr. Ward.

The new units are located at Fisk and Crawford stations in Chicago and at Waukegan Station. An additional 114,000 kilowatts of peaking power will be added at Waukegan before the end of summer and 440,000 kilowatts more will be installed at Calumet in Chicago and at stations in Joliet and Rockford by next spring.

When all of these units are in service, Edison will have a peaking capacity of 1,104,000 kilowatts—enough power to supply over one million typical room air conditioners.

The units were purchased from General Electric Company and the Worthington Corporation.

Fund Drive On To Buy Prairie

The Illinois Chapter of The Nature Conservancy announced today that $4,957.00 has been donated or pledged in its drive to raise $14,500.00 towards the purchase of the Berkeley Prairie in Lake County.

The fund drive is part of a joint effort between The Nature Conservancy and the Lake County Forest Preserve District to preserve the 18 acre prairie. The Conservancy has contracted to purchase the tract for $59,500.00 and the Lake County Forest Preserve District has agreed to repurchase it for $45,000.00 and manage it as a natural area. The Conservancy's Illinois Chapter had 90 days to raise the $14,500.00 difference as of June 9th. The first 30 days of the campaign netted $4,957.00 in contributions ranging from $1,000.00 to $5.00.

The tall grass prairie, located on the Highland Park - Deerfield boundary at Berkeley and Ridge Roads, is a unique remnant of the open grassland that once covered much of Illinois. Its preservation is being sought to provide the school children and residents of Lake County an opportunity to see and walk among the waving, eight foot grasses and many beautiful wildflowers that met early settlers of the area.

Contributions, which are tax deductible, should be marked "Berkeley Prairie," made payable to the Illinois Chapter of The Nature Conservancy, and sent to Mr. Elliott Donnelly, Treasurer, Illinois Chapter - The Nature Conservancy, 2223 South Park Way, Chicago, Illinois 60616.

Dodd, Reimer & Anderson Win Week-End Races

Jr. Dodd, the Waukegan Whiz Kid, has been driving modified stock cars for many years. He has been driving for the A4 racing team for two years now but has never won a feature for the team. Saturday night all that changed as he not only won the feature event, but snopped the four in a row win streak held by Whitey Harris of Lake Villa.

Dodd took the lead on the 17th lap from another Waukegan driver who was headed for his first win. Roger Iles led at the start from the pole starting position until the second restart when Dodd finally worked for several laps before getting the advantage coming off the number four turn.

Ken Hanson brought out the first red flag when he spun in the third turn and could not restart. The next one came out when Jim Bozeman spun in the second turn and was trying to get going again when Al Schill and Chuck Acheson came along and piled into the sideways car. Later, as the race neared the 30th lap, Whitey Harris spun in the fourth turn and was hit by Roger Iles. The two of them sat out the rest of the feature race looking into the cockpits of each other's car and watching the moving modifieds dart close.

Jim Sullivan, who was never further back than third, took second on the 10th lap and finished there. Bill Bohn, the night's fastest qualifier, tried to move around Iles for second spot on this same lap but nearly spun his car and was helped up by Iles who was trying to avoid a direct hit on Bohn.

Luckily, Iles hit him only hard enough to straighten him out and the two of them kept going. Bohn drove a hard recovery route to finish third at the end over Roger Otto. Otto was driving Mike Kukula's modified after his own car lost the rear end while leading an earlier heat race.

This heat was won by Tom Anderson and other wins went to J. C. Jamerson, Ken Monroe and Jr. Dodd. Monroe was particularly happy since it was his first win of any kind at Wilmet all year.

Denny McKay of Elgin won the semi feature ahead of Ray Dobbs, Monroe and Jimmy Hedges.

REIMER WINS AT BOB-JO SPEEDWAY

Johnny Reimer had winner's luck on his side Wednesday night, July 17, at the Bob-Jo Speedway when he went home with the lion's share of the purse money, by winning first place in the feature race.

The first event, a trophy dash, was won by Tom Anderson of Antioch, ahead of Bill Bohn and Jr. Dodd. Danny McKay of Elgin won the first heat race ahead of Jimmy Hedges and Jim Cameron. The next heat was won by Roger Iles of Waukegan with Eddie Loomis doing the chasing. Bill Bohn got the third heat race win. He and Tom Anderson had beat was won by Roger Iles of Waukegan with Eddie Loomis doing the chasing. Bill Bohn got the third heat race win. He and Tom Anderson had been involved in a fourth turn last lap tangle in the previous heat.

At Rockford Speedway on Friday, July 19, Johnny Reimer who had his three in a row streak snapped by Roger Otto, came back to start a new streak by getting his fifth win in IRA super-fast modified competition. Otto was second, followed by Whitey Harris, Billy Goeden and Claude Potter.

The heat races were equally exciting as Bergsma won the first heat ahead of Ray Dobbs and Ken Monroe. Anderson and Potter won other heats and Harris won the trophy dash.

Rifles Like Showing Of 2 Rookies

Two outstanding rookies from nearby Carthage College in Kenosha have every intention of making the starting line-up for the Lake County Rifles. Guard Bob Anacker and split end Larry Weiss have been looking very good according to head coach Gene Cichowski.

Anacker, one of the largest men on the squad at 6'4"—275 lbs. has been working at offensive right tackle this past week. The 1968 graduate was a four-year letterman at Carthage where he played both guard and tackle, offensively and defensively.

The Rifles, who are still having problems with their interior offensive line may have to go both ways with Anacker. Frank Giamore, Rifle line coach said, "We'd like to use Bob at a defensive tackle, but because of our uncertain offensive line, we may have to use Anacker both ways." While at Carthage, Anacker was co-captain of the All-Conference team in 1967, a NAIA All-American and was the only player named to both offensive and defensive units on the CCIW All-Star squad.

The Rifles could conceivably start on offensive line J. C. Coleman and Anacker at tackles, Al Leopold and Walt Isaacson at guards and veteran Lee Wahlgren at center.

Larry Weiss (6'2"—195 lbs.) has also impressed Coach Cichowski with his "good hands." Weiss, a transfer from Northwestern University to Carthage College was a regular on the 1966 and 1967 teams and played at half-back and light end.

Because of his speed and pass catching ability, Cichowski has placed Weiss at split end. Last year, Weiss led his college team in pass receptions for a total 165 yards and three touchdowns.

Winners of nine tournaments on the current professional golf tour, including Lee Trevino, U. S. Open champion, and Bob Goalby, holder of the Master title, are among early entries for the 65th Western Open championship to be held Aug. 14 at Olympia Fields C.C. Jack Nicklaus is the defending champion.

Among those aiming at the $26,000 first prize in the Western are a pair of golfers among the few who have won more than once on the tour. They are George Archer, who out-stroked the field in the Pensacola Open and the Greater New Orleans Open, and young Bob Lum, winner at Memphis and Atlanta.

Other four winners entered are Miller Barber, the Byron Nelson Classic; Gardner Dickinson, the Doral Open, and Kermit Zarley, winner of the Kaiser International and second to Barber in the Nelson Classic.

Other top performers are Doug Ford, former Western, Masters and P.G.A. champion; Tommy Bolt, Dick Mayer and Ken Venturi, all former U. S. Open winners; Gay Brewer, 1967 Masters champion; Chichi Rodriguez, who won the Western at Tam O'Shanter, and three other past P.G.A. title holders, Bobby Nichols, Lionel Hebert and Jay Hebert.

Also Frank Beard, second at Tucson and in the "500" Festival; Deane Beman, runner-up in the Hope Classic; Bert Weaver, tied for second in the Jacksonville Open; Tommy Aaron, Romero Blancas, Jim Colbert, Charles Cody, Chuck Courtney, Bruce Crampton, Dick Crawford, Terry Dill, Marty Fleckman, Ray Floyd, Rod Funseth, Randy Glover, Laurie Hammer, Labron Harris, Harold Henning, Dave Hill, Howie Johnson, Billy Maxwell, Steve Opperman, Phil Rodgers, Mason Rudolph, Charles Sifford, R. H. Sikes, Bob Verwey and Dudley Wysong.

Berna Wins 2nd Feature Bohn Breaks 2 Record

Joe Berna is the new sensation of the Waukegan Speedway late model stock car division as he won his second consecutive feature in two starts at the Speedway Saturday night. Berna led all the way to win by nearly a quarter lap over Jim Cossman.

Driver Roy Hansen, of Racine, was rushed to St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan after his car hurdled the concrete retaining wall in the first turn during time trial runs. Apparently Hansen's throttle jammed wide open causing the car to ram, then vault the wall. The utmost care was shown in removing Hansen from the car as he complained of neck injuries.

A report from St. Therese Hospital late Sunday indicated that x-rays showed no break or dislocation; however, Hansen is still being retained at the hospital for observation.

Berna had nearly a third of a lap margin over Cossman and sailed home an easy winner. Jack Ester finished third. Mike Wolf passed Jerry Peterson for fourth in the 19th lap and with just two laps remaining, Bob Anzinger shot by Peterson for fifth money.

Paul Aken, of Waukegan, won the Mississippi Mud race.

BOHN WINS SUNDAY NIGHT FEATURE

Bill Bohn shattered two track records and romped home the feature-winner at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night. John Reimer's win string was stopped at four as he spun out in the fifth lap of the non-stop event.

Jim Fiscus took the lead at the green flag and then nearly flipped in a collision with Roger Iles in the second lap. The remainder of the field cleared the bouncing cars, Junior Dodd racing into the lead. Reimer spun in the fifth lap and Claude Potter rammed into him. Reimer lost nearly a lap and Potter dropped out of the race.

Bohn closed in on Dodd by the halfway point, first tasting the lead in the 16th lap and then pulling in front for good in the next lap. Dodd raced home in second with Harold Wade settled in third.

Bohn's new 30 lap record of 8:09.3 lowered Wade's year old mark by over 8 seconds. Earlier Bohn gave the crowd a tip-off of his record setting potential as he set a new ten lap record in the third heat. His time of 2:41.2 knocked Whitey Harris' mark from the records.

Bob Klem turned in a clean sweep in the hobby division, winning the second heat and then coming from the rear to win the main event in that division.

Denny McKay won the modified semi-feature and a heat race to also record a double win Sunday. Tom Anderson won the STP dash and Reimer was last qualifier.

Transplant Center Set For Illinois

Plans for the development of an extensive organ transplant center has been announced by the University of Illinois Hospitals. A kidney transplant program has been underway at the Hospitals for some time, and the new center will allow for marked expansion of the program.

The Center will provide facilities for the pre- and post-operative care of patients receiving transplanted organs, including the kidney, liver and heart.

Dr. Lloyd Nyhus, who is the Warren H. Cole Professor and head of the Department of Surgery of the College of Medicine, will be director of the program.

The transplant program will be broadly based with participation of the Departments of Medicine, Preventive Medicine, Microbiology and Pediatrics as well as the Department of Surgery. Researchers at the hospital emphasized the importance of transplanting organs only between patients who have compatible tissue antigens. These are similar to blood group types.

Although tissue typing is in its infancy compared to blood group typing, they emphasize that the success or failure of organ transplantation, to date, has correlated extremely well with the available techniques of tissue typing.

The transplantation of cadaver organs on a random basis has yielded rather low, long term success, while transplantation of the kidney from blood relatives, who are likely to have similar tissue group types, has been extremely successful.

Organ transplantation at the institution is now based on tissue typing, and the new facilities will permit rapid expansion of the program.

Housing Proposal Supported

The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce has announced support of fair housing legislation pending in the Illinois General Assembly. Board of Directors action followed a favorable recommendation of the State Chamber's Legislative Committee.

The proposed legislation prohibits discrimination in housing by a real estate broker, real estate salesman, developer or lender. Single-family dwellings are included under the federal act. (The Board did criticize section 16 of H.B. 2761, which awards attorney's fees to the plaintiff and denies the same to the defendant, recommending this section be stricken from the bill or amended to give the same rights to defendants.)

Said State Chamber President E. Stanley Enlund of the Board's decision, "we believe a full fair housing law should be on the books in Illinois, despite the recent Supreme Court decision." Enlund referred to a ruling last Monday by the United States Supreme Court decision. Enlund referred to a recent ruling by the United States Supreme Court which cited an 1866 statute to uphold the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1968, barring housing discrimination.

Enlund, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Chicago, noted the Federal Civil Rights Act provides that the federal government would defer enforcement of fair housing to states, cities and other political subdivisions which have fair housing laws equal to the federal act. He cited as a similar situation the Chamber's past support of fair employment practices legislation where state control is exercised.

"While it has always been the State Chamber's policy to prefer local to federal rule, even more important is our belief that Illinois owes this kind of equality and the individual dignity it imparts—to ALL its citizens."

"Thus the need for a state law against discrimination in the sale and rental of housing was not removed by the Supreme Court's ruling, he continued. "The decision on the 1866 law provides no administrative procedures. This type of legislation should be implemented at the state level and that means we in Illinois must have our own laws. The bills now before the Illinois Legislature would provide this."

Concluded Enlund: "The State Chamber supports fair housing because our state needs such laws. They are part of the promise of Illinois."

4-H Judges Score High In Contest

Lake County's 4-H vegetable judging team earned an A rating recently at Urbana. Individual ratings of team members were: Joe Schlessler, Julie Russell, and Rose Coniglio, A's. Susan Campbell and Delores Russell, B. Cindy Sayre, a C rating. All members of the vegetable team are enrolled in the Wau-conda Agricultural Club. Thirty-two counties competed in the vegetable division.

In the Dairy division, a team ranking of B was achieved. Individual ratings were: Tony Titus, A; David Shanks and Roger Shanks, B; Earl Shanks, Laura Sage, and John Sage, C. These contestants are members of the Happy Hayceeds 4-H Club, Mundelein. Sixty-three counties competed for the top ratings.

The Lake County Livestock team attained a B rating in a contest in which 88 counties competed. Bill Grinnell and Vernon Stadel, Happy Hayceeds, and Bob Bendall, Grayslake Agriculture, rated B ribbons. Receiving C ratings are: Glen Stadel, Happy Hayceeds Club; David White and John White, Millburn Hornets.

Gary Wells, Millburn Hornets, rated an individual A ribbon in poultry competition. Twenty-two county teams competed in this contest in which the Lake County team received a C rating. Bill Regner, Volo Agriculture; Mark Nylen, and Steve Nylen, Barrington Clover Leafs, each rated C.

George Daigh, state 4-H specialist, says that nearly 1,100 4-H'ers from 90 counties took part in this year's contest. County teams and individuals were ranked in three groups. A team ribbon was given to counties with Class A and B judging teams.

Ribbons were awarded to individuals placing in Classes A and B. Medals will be awarded to members taking part in the national contests later this year.

Illinois will be represented in national contests in all four divisions of the state contest by teams made up of three individuals and an alternate. The four team members in each contest are selected from the A group in the state contest by means of invitational contests held later in the year.

In national competition, members on the state dairy team will judge at the National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest in Columbus, Ohio, and the International Dairy Show in Chicago. The livestock team will compete at the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago and the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City. Poultry team members will attend an invitational contest in Chicago, and vegetable team members will judge in a national invitational contest in Atlanta, Georgia.

Teen Club 'Inherits' $64.42

Thanks to the Lindenhurst Teen Club of 1961-62, the Civic Teen Club treasury is $64.42 richer. Before Chuck Maxwell moved to Tempe, Ariz., recently, he brought a check for that amount over to Dudley Morten to give to the current teen club.

Thor Neumann Retires

After working for Northwest Buick in Chicago for 43 years, except for 33 months when he operated the Shell Gas Station in Lindenhurst, Thor Neumann retired on June 25. His co-workers gave him a transistor radio.

On Tuesday, July 9, members of the Lindenhurst Men's Club and their wives surprised Thor and his wife, Zenia, with a retirement party, at the civic center. Thor was presented with a shirt and sweater by his friends. Besides all the food and refreshments, they had a beautifully decorated cake.

The next day, they drove to Center Valley, Pa., to visit their daughter, Viola Kress, her husband, Hughie and their four children for a week.

Hawaiian Vacation

Frank and Sari Plotzke, 1804 Fairfield Rd., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary a bit prematurely by spending 10 days in the Hawaiian Islands. They stayed in Honolulu, Oahu, seven days and saw all the major points of interest, including an authentic Polynesian luau.

Their anniversary date is October 9.

Wedding

Gail Thomas and Mark Nelson will be married at the Christian Catholic Church at Zion, on Saturday, Aug. 10, at 7 p.m. Pastor and Mrs. Nelson invite parishioners of St. Mark Lutheran church to attend. Those planning to attend the reception in the church parlors after the ceremony are asked to inform the Nelsons.

Christened

Robert Charles, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer, was baptized Sunday during the 8:30 worship services.

Luther Leaguers

If you like popcorn, be sure to buy a bag from the Luther Leaguers next Sunday at the Venetian Village Barbecue. The money will be used for their vacation next summer.

Mother-Daughter Night

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will observe Mother-Daughter Night, tonight (July 25) starting at 7 p.m. sharp. A clown will entertain with balloons, and root-beer floats will be served.

FARMERS BOOST ECONOMY

America's farmers and ranchers do more than provide food and fiber for the rest of the population.
They also strengthen the rest of the economy through their pur-

to carry out their agricultural operations. In other words, they help pay the salaries and wages of people in many other industries.

Salons Should Get A Choice IAA Reports

Members of the Illinois legislature should be free to choose between alternatives which may be proposed for solving the state's financial problems rather than restricted by a political party's endorsement of a single approach.

That point was made in the Illinois Agricultural Association's
statement to the platform committee of the Illinois Republican party. John K. Cox, IAA secretary of legislation, presented the state-wide Farm Bureau's platform recommendations at a recent meeting in Springfield. The same statement will be made to the Democratic party prior to its platform deliberations.

While the IAA has supported a state income tax for a number of years as a more equitable means of getting additional revenue, the association did not propose that the Republican party endorse a flat rate income tax.
Instead, the farm organization

asked the party to adopt a platform "which will leave the members of the legislature free to choose between alternatives which may be proposed for providing the necessary state funds."
In the area of revenue, the IAA said that continued increases in property taxes and inability of the state government to live within its income are matters of grave concern to many farmers.
"Securing sufficient state revenue to meet state needs and revising the tax structure to provide a broader tax base to lessen present tax inequities are major state needs."

Expressing concern with the trend toward urbanization of population and decreasing rural minorities, the IAA recommended that any reapportionment of county boards, as directed by the U. S. Supreme Court, be done in a manner allowing some rural representation.

The IAA also stated that much consideration should be given by the state legislature to revising local government structure in order to serve the people better.
Consideration should be given to combining some of the smaller counties or to combining functions of the various offices for more efficiency and economy, the

IAA recommended. The farm organization also urged the legislature to increase its support of operating costs of Illinois junior colleges because these costs have risen considerably since appropriations were made in 1965.
The Illinois Agricultural Association also urged the Republican party to support the Illinois constitutional convention as the "most logical present way to remove roadblocks to Illinois' future." Illinois citizens will be voting on the constitutional convention proposition in the November election.

THOSE B VITAMINS

One of the best natural sources
for the important group of vitamins known as the B complex is meat. Pork is the best source of the first one, called thiamine.
Liver is the best source of ribo-

flavin and niacin.
Other B vitamins which are essential in the human diet are pyrridoxine (B6), pantothenic acid,
folic acid and vitamin B12.
Amounts of these needed have not been established, but it has been found that if the diet has sufficient high quality protein, it also supplies these.
